SHIPPING NOTES.

The steamer Waialeale, arriving from Kauai yesterday morning, brought 3,500 bags of sugar.

The cruiser Philadelphia is due to arrive here from Pago Pago about the 2d of next month.

Captain Lane, who formerly had command of the tug Leslie Baldwin, at Kahului, is in Honolulu.

A sailor on the Tillie E. Starbuck had his leg injured the other day by a fall. He was treated by the marine hospital surgeon aboard the vessel.

The Oceanic steamship Ventura is expected to arrive from San Francisco the first thing this morning with a couple of days' later mail and newspaper files.

The gunboat Alert, which left San Francisco on the 10th instant for this port, is coming down under sail, and may not arrive here for a couple of weeks.

It is reported that Pilot Fitzgerald was carried off to sea in the bark Carroll from off Hilo. When the Kinuau sailed from Hilo the bark had sailed out of sight.

The steamer Iwalei, which arrived yesterday from Kawaihae, reported that the lighthouse at that place was destroyed by fire on the night of the 14th instant. The light, it is said, will be replaced as soon as possible, as this is a very important point.

Four of the fleet of the little Island schooners are overdue. They are the Concord, the Luka, the Mo Wahine, and the Ka Mo. They should have arrived here by this time from the Hamakua coast. It is thought that they have been detained by the rough weather which has prevailed for the past few days.

Yesterday morning the steamer Nihau arrived from Kauai. She encountered a heavy gale while at Koloa, and found it impossible for one day to land any of her cargo. While she was at Nawiliwili she lost one of her anchors, and one of her screws got loose and drifted ashore. The Iwalei brought no sugar back from the Garden Isle.

The schooner Defender, which arrived at Hanalei last week from San Francisco, went ashore there on Thursday during a heavy gale. The vessel's stern grounded. She pounded hard for some time, but her crew finally managed to get her off. It is reported that her rudder and part of her keel were badly damaged, and it is probable that she will have to come to this port for repairs.

Captain Edward Davis is coming to take command of the artillery stationed here. He is expected on the transport Buford, which, according to advices received by Major Robinson by the last mail, was to sail from San Francisco yesterday. The Buford will go to New York by way of this port, Guam, Manila and the Suez Canal. She should arrive here on or about next Wednesday, the 24th instant.

The probabilities are that the Oceanic steamship Zealandia has arrived at San Francisco without further mishap. At about 9:45 o'clock in the evening of the 9th instant, shortly after the steamer Doric left San Francisco, the officer on watch sighted a vessel which he believes was the Zealandia. The only other white painted vessel which he could have sighted would have been a transport, and there was very little chance of a transport being in those parts, as such vessels take an entirely different route going home from the Philippines.
